

I am very concerned about efforts to weaken the Do Not Call list in Wisconsin. I feel that allowing these unwanted calls violates my right to privacy in my home. Please consider the wishes of the individual citizens rather than yielding to the demands of corporate America!